300-4-15-.04 Definition of Terms.

- (1) ACADEMIC PERIOD. A semester or quarter.
- (2) APPROVED POSTSECONDARY PROGRAM. Any for-credit or non-credit workforce or career training program or course of study at the undergraduate level directed toward a vocational certification, an associate degree, or a baccalaureate degree offered by a participating institution. The term includes an academic major.
- (3) COMMISSION. The Alabama Commission on Higher Education.
- (4) ELIGIBLE DEPENDENT. An individual who, on the date of applying for the scholarship provided under this article, is:
 - (a) Not eligible for the police officer's survivors educational assistance provided under Article 5 of this chapter; and
 - (b) Is one of the following:
 - 1. A natural or adopted child of a qualifying law enforcement officer, who is under 24 years of age, and who has resided in the state for at least the five preceding years; or
 - 2. The current or surviving spouse of a qualifying law enforcement officer who has resided in the state for at least the five preceding years.
- (5) ELIGIBLE STUDENT. An eligible dependent who completes an Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship application, and adheres to the following:
 - (a) Is enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an approved postsecondary program at a participating institution as an undergraduate student;
 - (b) Complies with the Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as required for Title IV benefits under the federal Higher Education Act and as defined by the participating institution for each academic period for which the recipient is enrolled.
 - (c) That the recipient maintains his or her full-time residency in the state.

(d) Completes the academic terms for which the scholarship is available within 66 months of the approval of the application, in the absence of a formal waiver of this condition by the Commission due to injury, illness, the necessity of part-time enrollment, or some other extraordinary circumstance;

(e) Completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and submitted to the United States Department of Education, or documentation from the participating institution that the applicant has completed the FAFSA;

(f) If the recipient's eligibility is based on spousal status, eligibility shall end if the marriage to the qualifying law enforcement officer is terminated by a decree of divorce or, in the case of a recipient who is a surviving spouse, remarriage.

1. A surviving spouse of a law enforcement officer who did not die in the line of duty will remain eligible unless in the event the recipient remarries.

(g) Maintains eligibility for the scholarship while changing his or her approved postsecondary program or transferring to another participating institution, or both, only if the change or transfer is approved by the appropriate participating institution no later than the beginning of the fifth semester or the ninth quarter for which the scholarship would be available.

(6) FULL-TIME STATUS. Enrolled in at least twelve (12) credit hours at a participating institution.

(7) LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY. Any law enforcement department or agency that serves the state, a municipality, a county, or a postsecondary educational institution.

(8) PARTICIPATING INSTITUTION. An accredited public postsecondary vocational school, technical school, community or junior college, college, or university in Alabama that enters into a contract with the Commission to accept reimbursement for a scholarship awarded to an eligible student.

(9) PART-TIME STATUS. Enrolled in at least six (6) credit hours but no more than eleven (11) credit hours at a participating institution.

(10) QUALIFYING LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER: An individual as defined in Section 13A-11-38:

(a) Is or has been certified by the Alabama Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission.

(b) Who, on or after January 1, 2026, is employed full-time for at least 15 years by a law enforcement agency in the state; or

(c) Who, having been employed full-time for at least 15 years by a law enforcement agency in the state, has been separated for no more than 10 years from full-time employment as a law enforcement officer due to resignation, retirement, or death, unless the individual was terminated from final employment as a law enforcement officer pursuant to a disciplinary action.

(11) TUITION AND MANDATORY FEES. Costs charged for tuition and mandatory fees that are assessed for all students at the participating institution. The term does not include differential tuition or department-specific or course-specific fees, or books, equipment, or supplies.

300-4-15-.06 Application Procedures.

(1) The Commission shall make the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship award available to eligible students at participating institutions by the following:

(a) Applicants shall obtain the application from the Commission's website (www.ache.edu).

(b) Applicants shall be required to complete the application and attach the appropriate documentation to substantiate eligibility with respect to a qualifying law enforcement officer. Such required documentation must include one of the following:

1. a certified copy of a natural child's birth certificate,
2. the decree of adoption showing the parental relationship to a qualifying law enforcement officer for an adopted child, or
3. a certified copy of the marriage certificate to a qualifying law enforcement officer for a spouse.

(c) Applicants shall also provide a copy of a completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) submitted to the U.S. Department of Education or documentation from the participating institution that the applicant has completed a FAFSA.

(d) Applicants shall also provide a signed Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) release form.

(e) The applicant shall submit the completed application, along with required documentation, to the Commission. Each applicant shall be notified by the Commission when an application is incomplete.

(f) The Commission shall review each application and determine if the applicant meets eligibility requirements for participation in the program.

(g) Upon approval of the application, the Commission shall request the participating institution to submit an invoice for reimbursement via the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship.

(h) Payments for eligible students shall be forwarded to the financial aid office of the participating institution.

(i) The scholarship shall pay tuition and mandatory fees after any other amounts from public or private scholarships, grants, aid, or gifts awarded by third parties to the eligible dependent for the academic period have been applied.

300-4-15-.07 Disbursement of Funds and Refund Requirements.

(1) The Commission shall determine the dollar amount of each scholarship award and shall submit a voucher to the State Comptroller. No eligible student shall receive the scholarship at more than one participating institution during any one academic term.

(a) Each eligible student enrolled at full-time status may receive a maximum of $2,500 per academic period. Eligible students enrolled at part-time status shall receive a prorated award amount.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph(a), if the recipient qualifies for a discount on tuition and mandatory fees because the recipients eligibility is based upon the qualifying law enforcement officer's employment by a law enforcement agency that serves a participating postsecondary institution, the amount shall be capped at $1,500 for each academic period.

(c) The scholarship may be granted to as many dependents of one qualifying law enforcement officer as are eligible and who comply with the scholarship's requirements.

(2) A lump sum check payable to the participating institution for each eligible student listed on the voucher. The check shall be forwarded to the participating institution for credit to each student's account or for the payment to the participating institution for delivery of funds to the eligible student. No later than thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the scholarship check, the participating institution shall deliver the scholarship funds to the eligible student and return completed certification form to the Commission.

(3) If a student whose eligibility for the scholarship was certified by a participating institution but becomes ineligible for the scholarship before the expiration of the institutional refund period, the scholarship funds shall not be delivered to the student but shall be returned to the Commission.

300-4-15-.08 Review Procedures.

(1) The institutional review will enable the Commission to express an opinion of the administrative controls and of the compliance aspects of the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship at the participating institution.

(2) The primary objectives identified for the reviewer performing institutional reviews are:

(a) To determine whether the participating institution's reports present information accurately and in conformity with the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship policies and procedures, and whether all reports are prepared on a consistent basis from one period to the next;

(b) To determine whether the participating institution has implemented and is utilizing reasonable procedures and internal controls for effectively discharging management responsibilities and for adequately protecting the state's interest;

(c) To review institutional records and report on areas of noncompliance; and

(d) Based upon the review, to provide constructive recommendations to the participating institution.

(3) The participating institution shall make all records and information relative to the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship available to the Commission.

(4) A written report shall be provided by the Commission to the participating institution and shall include:

- (a) Any findings of inaccuracies in institutional reports;
- (b) Any inconsistencies in institutional reports;
- (c) Conclusions regarding the adequacy of administrative controls;
- (d) Any areas of noncompliance; and
- (e) Recommendations for improvement.

(5) If the participating institution does not concur with all items in the written review report, a written appeal should be submitted to the Executive Director of the Commission.

(6) When an institutional review reveals sufficient problems pertaining to the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship at a participating institution, the Executive Director of the Commission may:

- (a) Impose a temporary suspension of scholarship payments to the participating institution;
- (b) Suspend the institution from participation in the scholarship for an indefinite period of time;
- (c) Demand payment of any Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship funds to a student or repayment of funds to the State of Alabama to remedy a violation of applicable laws, regulations, agreements, or operating procedures; or
- (d) Refer any problems to the Attorney General of the State of Alabama for appropriate legal action.

(7) A suspended institution may request a hearing by the Commission. The institution shall be notified in writing of the time and place of such Commission hearing.

(8) After such hearing, the Commission shall determine (at an official meeting of the Commission) whether to:

- (a) Continue the suspension pending the receipt of any additional information that the Commission may require;
- (b) Continue the Executive Director's suspension subject to limitations or exceptions;
- (c) Revoke or lift the suspension and restore the institution to full participation as authorized under the regulations;

(d) Terminate the institution's eligibility for an indefinite period of time;

(e) Demand payment of any Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship funds to a student or repayment of funds to the State of Alabama to remedy a violation of applicable laws, regulations, agreements, or operating procedures; or

(f) Take any other appropriate action the Commission deems necessary, including referral to the Attorney General of the State of Alabama for appropriate legal action.

300-4-15-.09 Maintenance of Records.

(1) Each participating institution shall establish and maintain current, adequate records which reflect all transactions with respect to scholarship and fiscal activity as they relate to the administration of the Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship. The records must be maintained in such a manner as to identify all scholarship and fiscal transactions separately from other institutional activities and funds.

(2) The records for any award period shall be retained for a period of five (5) years following the date of certification on a participating institutional invoice, unless a longer retention period is necessary because of scholarship review or audit resolution. In the event a participating institution closes or ceases operation and fails to matriculate students, institutional Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship records of the participating institution shall be forwarded to the Commission.

(3) Forms must be used to gather data in a uniform manner from each applicant. Such forms shall contain information relative to all eligibility criteria for an Alabama Law Enforcement Officers Family Scholarship award.

(4) The Executive Director of the Commission or any of the Director's duly authorized representatives will have access for the purpose of review and examination to Alabama Law Enforcement Officers' Family Scholarship records and supporting documents maintained by the participating institution.

(5) The records involved in any claim or expenditure which has been questioned by scholarship review or by state audit must be retained until resolution of any such review or audit questions.
